

Address: 105-107-109 St. David Street

Legal Description: Lot 10, Plan 56

Designation By-law: 70-92

By-Law Designation Date: June 8, 1992

Date of Construction: 1888 & 1889

Architectural Style: Italianate with Gothic revival features

Architectural Description: two storey row house; gable roof; red brick with yellow brick accents over the windows and at the corners of the building; there are three projecting bays one on either end and one in the middle; first floor left side; two segmentally arched one over one paned windows; then a segmentally arched doorway with a shed roof over it; two windows in the centre projection; next to that two doorways the same as the one on the left; then two more segmentally arched windows the same as the ones on the left; second floor; on the left; two one over one paned windows then a single window over the door; two windows in the centre projection; single window over each door and two more windows at the right side. Each of the projections has a gable roof decorated with carved wood work and a round window surrounded by yellow brick under the peak.