

Address: 109 Cobourg Street

Legal Description: West half of lot 195 and the Easterly 22 feet in perpendicular width throughout of lot 196, Plan 20

Designation By-law: 223-89

By-Law Designation Date: October 23, 1989

Date of Construction: 1889

Architectural Style: Gothic Revival/Ontario Cottage

Architectural Description: one storey yellow brick 3 bay house; hipped roof with a peak in the centre at the front; first floor; newer porch with gable roof supported by square posts; decorative carved motif in pediment of porch roof; two leaf entrance door with two paned segmentally arched transom; segmentally two over two paned window on either side of door with brick voussoirs above window; centre peak above door has a semi-elliptical window that appears to have the top portion filled in; the bricks project slightly at the corners; brick chimney on the right.

The house was built for James Pequegnat who was a local businessman and clock maker.