

Address: 208 Church Street

Legal Description: North Part of Lot 330, Plan 20

Designation By-law: 163-86

By-Law Designation Date: October 14, 1986

Date of Construction: 1889

Architectural Style: Queen Anne

Architectural Description: two storey red brick; with gable and hipped rooves; tall red brick chimneys on right side; two story bay at the rear; first floor verandah across front and down the right side; roof with pediment on left side; decorative trim in pediment and dentils under the roof; Doric columns with reeding in the upper half and plain from there to the limestone support post; right side of verandah has a rounded section with a conical roof with a final on top; the verandah continues along the right side towards the rear of the house; a double entrance door with a stained glass transom; the projecting three sided bay on the right side has a window in each side; the bay on the right side has a window facing the front of the house; second floor; on the left is a one over one window with a stone lintel; the bay has a one over one window at each side with stone lintels; a larger two over two paned window is segmentally arched framed by a stone voussiors with a key stone in the centre; one, one over one window is on the right side before the rear bay; the chimney is in the centre of the rear bay; decorative roof trim and eared trim frame the top of the front bay; a single semi-elliptical one over one paned window with a stone lintel painted grey is above the second floor centre window.

The house was built for John Alexander Davidson who was president of the British Mortgage and Trust.