

Address: 77 Brunswick Street, Stratford

Legal Description:
East Halves of Lot 1 & 2, Plan 27

Designation By-law:
166-85

By-law Designation Date: December 16, 1985

Date of Construction:
1860s

Architectural Style:
Georgian

Architectural Description: storey and a half frame house covered in clapboard; gable roof at front and saltbox roof in rear; one red brick chimney with a hood on either end of the roof; front façade three bay with centre door and rectangular six over six paned window on each side of entrance; window frames have eared trim; elaborate Greek Revival porch with round Doric columns; paneled architrave above columns; flat roof with dentils under fascia; the picket fence is quite detailed with urn finials on top of the intermediate square posts

This house belonged to the Creasy family who were known for their community service work.

Jim Anderson, city archivist owned this house at one time.