

Address: 88 Daly Avenue

Legal Description: Lot 14, all of Lot 15, Plan 74

Designation By-law 210-87:

By-Law Designation Date: November 9, 1987

Date of Construction: 1891

Architectural Style: Queen Anne

Architectural Description: two storey red brick with hipped roof with flat centre section in the middle at the top of the roof; shed dormer in centre at front of roof; first floor; centre door with transom; rectangular shallow bay on each side of door way with a large rectangular one over one window pane surrounded by a decorative window frame, that is slightly segmentally arched; the porch has an ornate railing and is held up by two Doric columns; the trim under the porch roof has square blocks with a round circle in each block; second floor; centre door to a balcony that extends in front of the upstairs windows, which are two long narrow one over one paned windows set close together and are slightly segmentally arched; both right and left sides of the porch have decorative woodwork that has an arch framing the windows; the porch posts go from floor to the eaves; an identical decorative railing as the one on the first storey is on the second storey porch; there is a small decorative gable roof over each end of the upstairs porch. There is a section on the right side towards the rear. The first floor has a door and a small window on the right the second storey could be an addition.

The house was built for Henry Baker, a wagon maker. Dr. Herbert Baker, a dentist lived here also. The home has been in the Baker family for five generations.