James Anderson Heritage Award

Calling for Nominations:

Heritage Stratford is calling for nominations for the James Anderson Heritage Award. This award recognizes the achievements of individuals or groups for Heritage Preservation and Conservation in the City of Stratford. It is named to recognize and honour the work of Mr. Anderson.

The James Anderson Heritage Award has been created by Heritage Stratford through the Council of the City of Stratford in honour of James Anderson (1929 - 1994).

James Anderson:

James Anderson was instrumental in the creation of Heritage Stratford (formerly LACAC), was a long-standing member of that committee and served as its Chair. Mr. Anderson helped form the Stratford-Perth Archives and the Stratford-Perth Museum, helped create the Brocksden County School Museum and for many years served as its curator.

James Anderson demonstrated leadership in the restoration and preservation of heritage structures within the City of Stratford. Mr. Anderson assisted in preserving the Gordon Block from demolition and helped save many other heritage properties including the Perth County Building.
