NOTICE OF PASSING OF DESIGNATION BY-LAW 127-2020 – 265 ST. DAVID STREET, STRATFORD

TAKE NOTICE that Council of The Corporation of the City of Stratford at a meeting held on October 13, 2020, designated the property at 265 St. David Street, Stratford, as a property of architectural and historical value or interest under Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, chapter O.18.

Description of Property

The subject lands are located on the southeast corner of St. David Street and Birmingham Street and are legally described as Lot 1 and Lot 2 Plan 84 City of Stratford; Except Part 2, 44R-5515; Lot 13 and Lot 14 Plan 84 City of Stratford Save and Except R162347; Save and Except Part 1, 44R-5748; Subject to an Easement in Favour of Part Lot 2 Plan 84, Part 2 44R-5515 As In PC167260; in the City of Stratford (Part of Pin: 53142-0144 LT).

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property at 265 St. David Street is important and merits designation for its historical, design and contextual significance for Stratford.

The property's red and buff brick Italianate design is a remarkable example of this style. The current building also pays tribute to the unique history of changes that it has undergone, from a one-story Regency Cottage to a two-story Italianate form, to a Beaux-Arts, colonnaded manse, and then back to its 1870s Italianate incarnation. The grandeur and distinctiveness of this property is attributed to the location and unusually large size of the corner lot in conjunction with the location, size and architectural style of the building.
