

Address: 101 Brunswick Street, Stratford

Legal Description: Plan 27, E Pt Lot 11, Lot 12

Designation By-law: 181-86

By-law Designation Date: December 15, 1986

Date of Construction: 1910

Architectural Style: Craftsman

Architectural Description:

two and half storey; pediment at the top is the attic level with four windows; second floor has three windows; centre window is a three part window with the upper sash consisting of multiple panes windows on either side of the centre one are two part windows with multiple panes in the upper sash; this portion of the house is clad in cedar shingles; the first floor is constructed of hydro stone; a cast cement product resembling quarry stone; the large front porch has a flat roof with a centre gable over the entrance way; there are three multi paned windows and a door; the porch is supported by square hydro stone columns

A prominent local physician, Dr. George Deacon owned the house. He was one of the first in the area to use x-ray equipment.