

Address: 270 Water Street Stratford Normal School (Teacher's College)

Legal Description: Part Lot 46 & 47, Conc. 1, designated as Parts 1 and 3 on Reference Plan 44R-2496

Designation By-law: 2-2002

By-Law Designation Date: January 14, 2002

Date of Construction: 1907-1908

Architectural Style: Romanesque Revival

Architectural Description: three storey with raised foundation red brick with brick quoins and a flat roof; all windows are rectangular one pane over one pane with stone sills and lintels with key stones; first floor; two windows on left then a rectangular projecting brick section with one square window; recessed door under stone trimmed arch with Ionic columns set on paneled rectangular bases with a flat roof above supported by brackets; second floor; two windows on left and two windows on right of centre section; centre section has large semicircular window with smaller panes around the outside of a larger centre pane; an arched lintel with a large keystone is over the top of this and a round stone decoration in each upper corner; round columns support the roof that has a slightly segmentally arched pediment; a dome shaped roof is on top of this with a flag pole on it; third storey has two windows on either side of centre projection.

The school is located in Queen's Park. It was designed by the Provincial Architect Francis Heakes. The park is also important and was designed by landscape architect, Frederick G. Todd.