

Address: 35 Waterloo Street North Falstaff School

Legal Description:

Designation By-law: 2-2001

By-Law Designation Date: January 8, 2001

Date of Construction: 1929

Architectural Style: Collegiate Gothic

Architectural Description: rectangular two storeys plus a basement; brown and red brick; flat roof; basement windows are rectangular above ground; first floor on left and right large three part windows with multi panes and metal muntins; brick pilasters in between the windows; front entrance projects slightly from the rest of the building and is surrounded by stone trim, stone arch; double doors with multi panes and arched transom with long narrow panes of glass; stone circle with figure head above door; second floor; windows are the same as the first floor; centre window three long narrow windows with stone trim on outside edge as well as in between the windows; trim goes below windows with brick infill below windows; above this set into the wide brick cornice is a decorative rectangle of stone with a finial. There are brick pilasters at the corner of the building. The right side has one window in the second floor above a double entrance door with a shallow peaked roof above it. The rear inset section has two windows on the first floor.

James Simpson Russell, who designed the building, was a prominent Stratford architect for 40 years.