

Address: 351-353 St. David Street

Legal Description: Part Lot 20, Plan 82

Designation By-law: 127-84

By-Law Designation Date: October 9, 1984

Date of Construction: c 1867

Architectural Style: Gothic Revival

Architectural Description: storey and a half triple gable red brick with yellow brick accents; gable roof; first floor left hand side; a multi paned window under the porch; a projecting portion with the entrance door framed in yellow brick with single pane side lights and a window in the door; the transom has a ogee curve above it and decorative grill work above the door; above the entrance is an ogee curved roof supported by side brackets; another multi paned window is on the right under the porch roof; the open porch on either side of the centre section has a sloped roof and spool work and brackets and turned porch posts as well as turned spindles in the railing; second floor; on the left and the right is an ogee shaped pointed window with a yellow brick surround and yellow brick trim below the window; the centre section has an oriole window with three ogee shaped windows in it and a decorative wood frame under the sill; each Gothic peak has ornate wood trim and a finial at the peak. The left side wall has two rectangular windows with yellow brick labels. The two peaks in the roof on this side have finials also.

This house was built for contractor, John Holmes.