

Address: 50 Cobourg Street

Legal Description: Part Lots 171, 172, Plan 20

Designation By-law: 4-82 (a)

By-Law Designation Date: January 12, 1982

Date of Construction: 1873

Architectural Style: Gothic Revival

Architectural Description: storey and half stucco over frame; gable roof with decorative bargeboard featuring quatrefoils and leaves and drop finials at the peaks; first floor; the main entrance has a segmentally arched opening with a multi-paned door and side lights and transom; there is a pedimented roof over the door; two large segmentally arched windows with multi-paned transoms and a three part window are to the right of the door; there is a sloping roof over these windows; a large four section one over one window is at the left with shutters on either end; there is an oriel window with leaded diamond shapes panes on the wall to the right of this window; the side wall on the right has a three part window with a decorative molded label above it and shutters on the left side and a three sided bay window on the right; second floor; a rectangular window with shutters is under the left hand gable; two rectangular windows with a molded label and brackets above each and a slight segmental arch with carved wood work are in the gable on the right; a similar window is in the peak of the gable on the right hand side wall.

This house was built by Thomas Orr, a house builder.