

Address: 63 William Street, Stratford

Legal Description: West Part of Lot 107, Plan 20

Designation By-law: 62-2004

By-Law Designation Date: April 13th, 2004

Date of Construction: 1875

Architectural Style: Vernacular

Architectural Description: One and a half storey board and batten construction house with front facing gable. House features a storm porch with sidelights and shaped transom as well as an adjoining verandah. House also has decorative brackets as well as second storey dormers.

The house was one of the original homes on the river in this area and is also one of the few remaining frame buildings in the city. In 1875, Thomas Todd, a carpenter, built 63 William Street. Since then, two other families, the Gaudy family and the Posliff family, have owned this house.