The death of her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II is a moment of profound sadness.

We mourn the passing of the Sovereign, someone who demonstrated to generations selfless public service, spanning 70 years.

Her Majesty provided leadership and support in times of grief, war and international conflict. She was a constant in our lives and someone that exhibited grace and dignity, care and compassion when the world needed it most.

Her Majesty had visited our city and the memories of those historic events live on in the hearts and minds of those who witnessed them.

As we enter the period of mourning to grieve the death of Her Majesty, remember her historic reign and incredible contributions to our global community.

Dan Mathieson, Mayor
